Call to Worship

One: Here in this space, we wear our hearts on our sleeves.

All: There is no use in filters or walls. This space is an authentic space.

One: This space is a brave space.

All: For when it comes to God, we are always invited to bring our full selves into the room.

One: So come into this space with your hurt and your joy, your prayers and your dreams.

All: All of God's children are welcome here.

One: Let us worship Holy God.

Hymn #428

"For the Healing of the Nation" (v. 1, 2, 4)

Invocation

Holy God, Today we will read stories of those who have known hurt—people who have carried shame, who have lived with grief and chronic illness, who have felt alone and ignored, who have seen the depths of suffering. As we listen, we will be reminded of the hurt we have carried during these fragile days—memories and regrets co-mingling in our chests. And as we listen, we will be reminded that our neighbors, our siblings in faith, also come to this space carrying burdens. So dust off our ears and stretch open the canvases of our hearts so that in our pain, we might lean into one another as we lean into you. Pull us close. We are listening. Amen.

Sharing the Peace of Christ (greet fellow worshipers in the live chat as we sing song #263
