Call to Worship

One: We believe in relationships.

All: We believe in asking hard questions, in showing up for one another, and in sitting together through the pain.

One: We believe in listening with grace, learning with curiosity, and apologizing with sincerity.

All: We believe in asking for help, saying what we need, and trusting that no degree of vulnerability could strip us of God's love.

One: We believe in trying our best and offering grace when our best is not enough.

All: And we believe that God is in all relationships—modeling for us the value of community through the relationships of the Trinity.

One: So we love today, and we strive to love even more tomorrow.

All: Let it be so.

Hymn #67

“We Thy People Praise Thee”

Invocation

God of long winters and longer summers, in the words of Paul, do your best to come to us quickly. Come to us with loud praise and joy, or appear to us in a still, small voice. Come to us through friends, or come to us through strangers. Come to us in scripture and in this hour of worship, and come to us quickly if you can. We are seeking you. We are always seeking you. With grateful hearts cracked open by love, we pray. Amen.

Sharing the Peace of Christ (greet fellow worshipers in the live chat as we sing song #2222
